

A woman diagnosed with breast cancer needs a direct, informative, and honest approach to the choices she is being asked to make in her time of crisis. The Breast Cancer Care & Research Fund is a non-profit 501 (c) 3 organization founded by Dr. John S. Link – a visionary, author and physician specializing in breast cancer care. Our goal is to educate women and their families confronted with breast cancer; to help them become more knowledgeable about the disease and more involved in treatment decisions.
